Please join your fellow faculty, staff, and students of the Pace community in the fight against breast cancer.

The Greater New York City of the Susan G. Komen Foundation, the largest contributor to breast cancer research, is holding its annual Komen Greater NYC Race for the Cure to fight against breast cancer.

Central Park

Sunday

September 10th

9:00 a.m.

Registration Fee: $45

Please register online at www.komennyc.org/race.

Use team name
"Pace University."

BE A SLEEPER! Register for the Race and then spend your Sunday morning in bed! (Pace Sleepers register as walker/runner)

The Komen Foundation is the largest contributor to breast cancer research and 25 percent of the money raised from the Race contributes to these research efforts. Participants will receive a commemorative t-shirt and a goody-bag.

Continental breakfast will be provided. Transportation will be provided from the Pleasantville campus to Central Park (free breakfast is courtesy of Chartwell).

For additional information contact Dr. Ellen Mandel Professor Emeritus at emandel@pace.edu.

Proceeds will benefit the Greater New York City Affiliate of the Susan G. Komen Breast Cancer Foundation which supports local hospitals and national foundations for research.

Last year, Pace University fielded the largest team from a college or university with more than 110 participants. Help us match last year's showing!
