Abstract

This is a very brief law that regulates use in the conservation district to primarily recreation and resource extraction.

Resource

147-14.1. Mountain Conservation District.

A. Permitted uses are as follows:

- (1) Forestry and tree farming and accessory logging roads and uses.
- (2) Wildlife refuges and conservation areas.
- (3) Trails for hiking, cross-country skiing, snowmobiling, horseback riding and other similar trails and their uses thereof.
- (4) Utility lines.

B. In areas which are within both the Mountain Conservation District and the Recreational Resort District, there shall be the following permitted uses in addition to the above permitted uses for the Mountain Conservation District:

- (1) Alpine ski trails.
- (2) Alpine ski lifts.
- (3) Snowmaking equipment.

(4) Night ski lighting.

C. Excavation shall be prohibited in the Mountain Conservation District.

147-24. Mountain Conservation District. The Mountain Conservation District shall consist of all land north and east of the Saco River, which is above eight hundred (800) feet in elevation, referenced to the North American Vertical Datum of 1929.
