

Pace University
Master of Public Administration Program:
Michaelian Institute for Public Policy & Management
The Helene & Grant Wilson Center for Social Entrepreneurship

Available Services

Focus areas: Municipal management, intergovernmental relations, nonprofit administration, healthcare delivery systems, economic development, housing, and transportation.

Research:

- Survey and opinion research (both quantitative and qualitative such as surveys, interviews, focus groups)
- Performance evaluation
- Cost-benefit analysis
- Strategic planning
- Trend analysis & forecasting
- Applied GIS

Workshops/Training:

- In-house or Pace based special topic workshops (topics related to municipal management, healthcare administration, nonprofit management, software specific training, etc.)
- Graduate certificate programs in healthcare administration and nonprofit management
- Promotion of Michaelian discount for the MPA program

Consulting:

- Inter-municipal and/or/Cooperative agreements, MOAs,
- Feasibility studies
- Program planning and evaluation
- Financial and Operational Analysis,
- Charter revision analysis
- Volunteer management and board governance
- Increasing civic awareness and engagement at the local level
- Economic and housing market analysis
- Affordable, subsidized and inclusionary housing studies
- Built environment/promoting healthy living
- Use of local development corporations/other public authorities in planning and economic development
- Infrastructure financing
- Grant research and writing

Contact: Dr. Hillary J. Knepper, M.P.A.
Associate Professor/Chair
Department of Public Administration
Dyson College of Arts & Sciences
Pace University
914-773-3140 Office
352-250-6289 Mobile
hknepper@pace.edu

